Highlights

We would like to welcome
William (Sandy) Hodgings to our club!

Have you ever been asked to introduce a speaker at a meeting or a social event?

At our last meeting, an Educational Advisory on The Importance of Introduction was presented by Colleen Charland. Here are a few suggestions to help you with introductions:

- Always shake hands before arriving and after leaving the lectern
- Ask for or prepare any information you will need to introduce a speaker before the meeting begins
- Make sure your introduction has an opening, a body and a conclusion

It's story TIME

At our last meeting, Peter Taylor and Julie Reasbeck decided to tell stories instead of presenting an informative speech!

Peter's speech was titled "The Story of the Stolen Canoe". It was the story about his 3-day adventure on Sable River with some members of his family. The story ended with a crack in the canoe they had borrowed for the trip. He used vivid words that described the scenery, the emotions felt while battling the rapids and the guilt about breaking the canoe. What a great adventure!

Julie's speech was titled "The Legend of the Mosquitoes". It is a native legend that explains why we have mosquitoes today. In her story, she changed her voice to represent each character: a young boy, an ogre and a chief.

All that were missing were the cozy campfire and the Smores!

Thank you!

We would like to thank all the members and guests that have participated in the last meeting. Thank you to: Brenda, Colleen, Peter, Ed, William and Julie.

Membership Promotion Drive!

Help increase membership and win a prize!

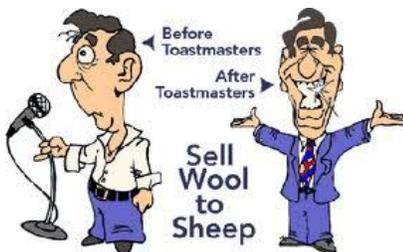

From now until the end of March, each member is invited to bring a guest to the meeting.

When you bring a guest, your guest's name will go into a draw for a Tim's gift card at the end of the meeting and your name will go into a draw for a Grand Prize (for members only) at the end of the promotion drive.

The Grand Prize is a Toastmasters backpack full of goodies (gift certificates, Toastmaster items, etc.).

Good luck everyone!

Next meeting: November 21st, 2012 @ 7pm
